Entered according to Act of Congress in the Year 1844 by the Author in the Clerks Office of the District Court of Md.

A - - dieu my na - - tive land, A last adieu to thee, Sweet

Po - land whose brave band, Have bled for li - - ber - - ty; Tho'

ex - - - - - iled from thy shore To wan - - der wea - - ry years, And tread thy halls no more — I turn to thee in tears, I turn to thee in tears — Fare - - well! fare - - well! fare - - well!

Ye fields baptized in blood,
 Ye walls of Warsaw brave;
 Where brothers battling stood,
 And freedom found a grave.
 Ye soldiers in your shrouds,
 Ye sons and noble sires,
 Who burst the battle clouds
 And scatter'd freedom's fires —
 Farewell! farewell! farewell!

3.

Adieu! once happy home,
 Where oft in childhood's hours,
 I lov'd thy hills to roam,
 And gather wild-wood flowers;
 Farewell! thou blissful shade,
 Where I my comrades met,
 Where I in boyhood play'd
 And never can forget —
 Farewell! &c. &c.

4.

Far in a foreign land,
 My feet are doom'd to roam;
 Yet oft in dreams I stand,
 Within my ancient home;
 My mother, in my sleep
 I see, and hear her songs;
 Then wake alas! to weep,
 And mourn Sarmatia's wrongs.
 Farewell. &c. &c.
